THIRTIETH ANNUAL REPORT.

THE year 1903 brings us to the thirty-first year of our services as a Board of Managers of the Philadelphia Home for Infants, and the accounting of our stewardship for the past twelve months is found in this, the thirtieth annual report, which is submitted, not with apologies for what, perhaps, has been left undone, but in a spirit of thankfulness for what we, aided by so many kind friends, have been enabled to bring to a consummation; this thankful spirit almost causes us to send up a shout of rejoicing and victory, although "there is still much land to be possessed."

Among the little ones things have moved along in about the same manner as in former years; general good health has prevailed, and no serious infectious diseases have interrupted the even tenor of their way.

The house has been brightened up by new papering and rugs, still adhering to the simplicity and economy which marks our furnishings.

We have to repeat the object of the Home—a babies' home, a place where infants deprived of parent or parents can be placed until four years of age, the period when they will be received at other homes for children. The mother can sometimes be taken in with her infant, and by caring for her own and another, find a home for both, with some remuneration beside.

One of our most generous contributors, Miss Harriet S. Benson, has, during the year, passed to her eternal reward, but not without leaving the Home a substantial memorial of her love in a bequest of $10,000, which has been paid by her executors.

Right here we are constrained to remind those who have under consideration the making of their wills to remember the Philadelphia Home for Infants and the very helpless ones needing such succor as it can give.

We look forward with eager expectation and hope of another appropriation from the State Board of Charities. This was aid long desired and much appreciated, as no institution was more in need or more deserving.

A pleasant feature of the year's work were the days set apart during the Lenten season for the Managers to meet at the Home and make garments for the children; a lunch was prepared, each one, of course, bearing her share of the expense.

Again we cordially thank the scholars of the E. Spencer Miller, Belmont Grammar, and Joseph Leidy Schools for a Thanksgiving donation of canned goods, cereals, groceries, &c.

Friends connected with the different societies, guilds, &c., have given us substantial aid, for which we heartily thank them in this collective manner, fearing they may have been overlooked in an individual letter of thanks.

The Women's Guild of Calvary P. E. Church, Guild of the Holy Child of St. Mary's Church, Willing Workers Circle, King's Daughters of Mantua Baptist Church, North Broad Street Presbyterian Church, Charity Organization of the Twenty-fourth Ward, St. Agnes Guild of St. Mary's Church, Philadelphia Branch of the Needlework Guild of America, Wayne Branch of the Needlework Guild, Overbrook Branch of the Needlework Guild.

Through the kindness of Mr. Harry Rittenhouse, the children were taken in his wagon to the Park in the morning, and returned in the evening, thus giving them a whole day's outing.

IN MEMORIAM.

We are pained to record the loss of two of our faithful workers, whose deaths came as a profound shock, occurring, as they did, at the same time—our devoted and ever faithful Recording Secretary, Dr. Eliza Jean Remick, who for nearly thirty years filled the office of Recording Secretary, conscientiously performing the duties it involved, ever evincing a lively interest for the institution she represented. As one of the founders, it was a work very near her heart; as a woman of superior judgment, her advice was always valuable, and her loss will be felt most by those who knew her best.

Mrs. John C. S. Davis, in her short term of service as Manager and Chairman of the Admission Committee, endeared herself to us, and by her fidelity and sympathy in the work won the admiration and esteem of all. Possessed of a strong personality, a woman of generous impulses and many noble qualities of mind and heart, her loss will be greatly felt in the social circle as well as in the charitable and philanthropic work her kindly generous nature led her to take part. A beautiful testimonial of $500 has been sent in her memory by her husband, he feeling it would be in accordance with her wishes.

One word for the Memorial Crib. Send thank offering for great deliverance from the fierce affliction, or something in memory of the little one safe forever in His keeping.

One hundred dollars will support a crib for one year.

To the Medical and Legal Staff our thanks are extended for favors shown.
